The date of these Final Terms is 27th September, 2017.

These Final Terms, under which the bonds described herein (the Bonds) are issued, are supplemental to, and should be read in conjunction with, the offering circular (the Offering Circular) dated 8th December, 2014 issued in relation to the debt issuance programme of European Investment Bank (EIB). Terms defined in the Offering Circular have the same meaning in these Final Terms. The Bonds will be issued on the terms of these Final Terms read together with the Offering Circular.

EIB accepts responsibility for the information contained in these Final Terms which, when read together with the Offering Circular, contain all information that is material in the context of the issue of the Bonds.

These Final Terms do not constitute an offer of, or an invitation by or on behalf of anyone to subscribe or purchase any of, the Bonds.

On 29th March, 2017 the U.K. government triggered Article 50 of the Treaty on European Union, which officially commenced the process of the U.K.'s withdrawal from E.U. membership. In this context, the European Commission published a position paper in relation to the "Essential Principles on Financial Settlement" on 12th June, 2017, which includes the following statement on the EIB:

"Through its subscribed capital (callable and paid-in), the United Kingdom committed to guarantee the financing made by the EIB while it was a Member State. Following the withdrawal, the United Kingdom should cease being a member of the EIB.

As part of the financial settlement, the United Kingdom liability resulting from the guarantee for the financing made by the EIB while the United Kingdom was a Member State should be maintained and its level decreased in line with the amortisation of the EIB portfolio outstanding at the time of United Kingdom withdrawal, at the end of which the paid-in capital of the United Kingdom in the EIB should be reimbursed to the United Kingdom."

The paid-in capital of the U.K. in the EIB is approximately EUR 3.5 billion. The EIB currently expects to provide a further update on the subject once the withdrawal negotiations are more finalised.

The terms of the Bonds and additional provisions relating to their issue are as follows:
